Elder T. P. Degman will preach at the church here the fifth Sunday in May at 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

There will be services at Pleasant Ridge Schoolhouse the first Sunday in May at 10:30 a. m. by an Old School Baptist Minister.

Died, on the 11th inst., Margaret Ann Dixon, aged 66, at the home of her son, Dr. W. H. W. Outten, of that dread disease—cancer. Funeral services were conducted at the church on the 12th by Elder T. P. Degman, after which she was tenderly laid to rest at the cemetery here. Deceased leaves one son, four grandchildren, many relatives and friends to mourn her loss. She was an indulgent and devoted mother and a kind neighbor. She was always cheerful and looked on the bright side of life. A memorial service will be held by Rev. Mr. Hendrick, a Presbyterian Minister, Mrs. Dixon united with the Presbyterian Church a number of years ago.

Lost yesterday, a Gold Bracelet. Reward if left at this office.

At Henderson John Wise stabbed and killed Sam Vincent over a game of craps. Wise escaped the officers.

GEORGE JOHNSON the motorist met with a slight injury yesterday by falling over a pole lying on the platform of his car.

SOME one walked out of Dr. Adamson's office a few days ago. He, she or they will please return the photograph of the Rev. Fife.

NINE thousand coal miners are now on a strike in Alabama; and this, according to Brother Marsh, isn't a real good year for strikes either.

Is the interest of economy, necessitated by the good times, each Louisville policeman will be laid off four days in each month without pay.

THERE were three additions to the M. E. Church, South, three at the First Baptist Church and three at the Central Presbyterian Church last night.

HIGH, there, Brother Marsh! The Democratic House has adopted the "Czar" Reed rule by a vote of 212 to 47. Now, aren't you glad you're a Democrat.

THERE will be no services tonight at the First Baptist Church, but on Thursday night there will be services, at which the ordinance of baptism will be administered to a large number of candidates.

THE Catholic Societies of this city will attend the dedication of a church at Bellevue on Sunday, May 6th. They will leave here on a special train on the morning of the 6th, and will arrive at Bellevue in time to witness the dedication.

At Lexington Lou Mosely was bitten by a spotted terrier dog, which was in a fit of hydrophobia. Mosely was playing with the dog, when he suddenly went mad, its eyes turned green and it began to snap, and before the man realized what was the cause of the dog's peculiar actions it had buried its sharp teeth in his hand.

PERSONS who are subject to attacks of bilious colic can almost invariably tell, by their feelings, when to expect an attack. If Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is taken as soon these symptoms appear, they can ward off the disease. Such persons should always keep the remedy at hand, ready for immediate use when needed. Two or three doses of it at the right time will save them much suffering. For sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.

My wife was confined to her bed for over two months with a very severe attack of rheumatism. We could get nothing that would afford her any relief, and as a last resort gave Chamberlain's Pain Balm a trial. To our great surprise she began to improve after the first application, and by using it regularly she was soon able to get up and attend to her house work. E. H. Johnson of C. J. Knutson & Co., Kensington, Minn. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Theo. Power, Druggist.
